

◦ FOURMI ROUZ ◦

- Logeshen Moorgan aka Fourmi Rouz, is a groundbreaking DJ, a broadcaster, and curator from Mauritius who is currently serving as the Creative Director at Royal Park, Mauritius to create regional artistic collaborations amongst the islands of the Indian Ocean that aims to preserve, revamp, and disseminate the unique musical heritage of the islands through the world.

- Fourmi Rouz explores African music by blending traditional elements alongside a forward thinking fusion of electronic music to deliver timeless, mesmerising and emotionally charged experiences that characterises the very essence of his music.

- Back home, Logeshen has played a pivotal role in creating a touring circuit in the Indian Ocean region for artists like Lefto, Nickodemus, Secret Cinema, Radioslave, Hugo Mendez, and many more through his now famous 'Sound Of' outdoor parties. His prolific digging skills have triggered a wave of musical discovery and inspiration amongst his Mauritian peers - several of whom have since become firmly established international DJs.

- With portentous performances at Le Sucre (Lyon, Portugal), Trans Musicales Festival (Renne, France), Jodhpur Riff (Rajasthan, India) along with an extensive touring schedule that has seen him perform in Germany, Lithuania, France, Belgium, the UK, Singapore, Thailand, India and Nepal, it's quite easy to say that Fourmi Rouz has consolidated his reputation as one of the most avant-garde trendsetting artists in the region.in the region.

"From his home land of Mauritius, via Vilnius before passing through London, the guy who also goes by the alias of Maxi, has certainly earned his DJ stripes. His multi-coloured, multi-ethnic mixes are incredible odysseys which wave from tribal world music to breakbeat, and from lounge to house music."
